

CIBA August 2022 President's Newscast

August 1, 2022

From the Central Iowa Beekeepers Association (CIBA) President:

Hello Members,

I am always wanting to keep the President's message short, so for this month I will just copy what a member sent me a few days ago. This person wanted to remain anonymous since this person is also a member of other bee groups.

CIBA Board of Directors,

I am so proud to be a member of the Central Iowa Beekeepers Association. The excellent communication, great organization, and member's participation make this group special. Any group missing these attributes will never be able to rise to their greatest potential.

My thanks to the Board of Directors, committee members and behind-the-scene workers, for making all this happen.

Grateful member

This message makes our mission more fun!! We do want to engage our membership as much as we can and improve our techniques of bee keeping.

The program for our September meeting on Saturday the 17th is still being finalized. Keep that date open because we know you will want to come.

Your President

Jamie
