

BIDDER CONDITIONS

All Bidders Must Register

No bids will be accepted without displaying your CIBA supplied bid card to the auctioneer at the time of bidding

All Items Sold “As Is”

All items are generally sold “as is,” without guarantee made to their value, function or genuineness.

No Items Removed from the Auction Site Prior To Payment

Payment via cash or check

Payment via credit card with 3% added Buyer's Premium

Items Must Be Taken Away After Purchase

All items successfully won by the bidder become their responsibility at that time.

It is your responsibility to remove all items you won from the auction site, even if it is part of a lot that you won but do not want. Any items still on the grounds at the completion of the auction will be considered abandoned and will be discarded unless arrangements have been made with the CIBA Auction Chair.

The Auctioneer Has Final Say

The auctioneers are the only party allowed to determine that a bid has been placed. If an auctioneer missed a bid, the missed party has no right to have a bid reinstated.

Know What You Won

The bid card has space to record the items (by lot number) of what you won. Having that information or at least the # of bids you won will speed check out. There is always a lag from when a lot is auctioned off and the clerical tags are available for check out. Knowing what you bid on and won will help prevent CIBA having to follow-up on items you won but the clerical tag from the auctioneers was not yet at check out when you pay.
